IT was Senator Sumner who lately made for Congress having been elected by large the casual remark that "Grant is the lowest | majorities. And this was done in the teeth man who ever set in the Presidential chair," of Gov. Davis' active exertions in behalf of and that he should be impeached for his course in the San Domingo business.

THE New York Tribune says Grant "cannot afford to keep Murphy in office," while the fact is Grant cannot afford to turn him out. Grant knows that but for Murphy, he could not muster a corporal's guard of friends in New York.

THERE are indications in France that the star of Napoleon may rise again. Accounts are rife of imperial intrigue and a growing popularity of the "lost cause." That the republic will shortly give place to some form of monarchy is, perhaps, inevitable, and the prosperity of France under the Bonaparte dynasty is urged as a reason for its restora-

While the authorities are thus strict with the employees, they were rather loose with high officials, as is shown in the fact that five million was slipped off on the Golden Rule, to be "lost," and no record kept of this large amount. That is the way the Grant administration manages matters.

SPEAKING of the possible removal of Murphy from the office of Collector of the port of New York, the Sun, Republican,

When lovers quarrel, it is an invariable rule for the presents to be returned. We presume that the principle which lies at the basis of the rule will prevent the removal of the Hon. THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS REBURE USUBPATION.

In the recent election in Texas the people arose in their majesty to rebuke the in-GRIFFITH & CO. famous usurpations of the Radical Governor of that State, and they did it in the most emphatic manner. The election resulted in a glorious victory for the Democratic party, all four of the Democratic candidates the Radical party and its candidates. The Governor threw all possible obstacles in the pointedly directed at men who acted with the Democracy, and his officers interfered the Democrats were too strong for Davis and his mercenary office-holders, and they carried the State by a large majority, and will send an unbroken delegation to Congress, unless Davis cheats them out of a member or two by throwing out votes, as Brownlow used to do in Tennessee when the Democrats ontyoted his friends. This is threatened and Davis may resort to it in his desperation. To show how reckless Davis grew in his desperation to carry the State for the Radicals, we may state that on the 9th of August last an order was issued by him, which stands unprecedented in American political history. At one time, so monstrous was the edict, it was reported that it had been withdrawn, but on the 5th of September it was re-affirmed by Gov. Davis, and under this iniquitous order the election was held. THE Philadelphia Telegraph, a Radical By its terms the voters in the State were commanded to "deposit their ballots with Radical State government in defiance of the constitutional inhibition on any State keeping a standing army in time of peacel, "or militia on duty at the polls shall see that this dained that "All persons are forbidden to shout, jeer at, or in any way insult or annoy voters or candidates for office during the registration and election," the constables, militia, and State troops to enforce this also. future consideration and determination. Upon these points the events intervening between this and the time for action may throw some satisfactory light. But whoever may be the candidate, and in whatever manner he may be selected, there is no earthly hope of his success without the united action of the Democrats of all the States. Let us have, in the language of Gen. Hamp ton, "a good platform and as acceptable candidates as posssible." We may then still win the battle.
